HISTORICAL DATA

QCWA had its inception during a 10-meter round table on Friday evening, November 14, 1947, when John DeBlasi, W2FX; Uda Ross, W2UD; John Gioe, W2FD; Edwin S. Crane, W2EF; Dr. Ernest Cyriax, W2DI and Irving R. Groves, W2DX, decided they should meet together and with other old-timers, to form an Association of Amateur Radio Operators who have been licensed at least 25 years (1922) or longer.

The first official meeting was held on Friday evening, December 5, 1947, in New York City, at which time the following old-timers were elected as Officers of the newly founded Quarter Century Wireless Association. In the above list, silent key members are indicated by (*). Call letters are believed to be correct. Where members are now silent keys, we have reverted to their original call signs at the time of the chartering.

A great deal of the growth and dynamic character of QCWA is a direct result of the chapters chartered across the continent and across the world. Chapters support QCWA activities and make it possible to enjoy fellowship of old-timers without driving long distances to meetings. The first chapter was formed in 1951 and the last one 39 years later, early in 1990. The Chapters are self governing but are required to make annual reports on membership status, etc., to QCWA and to operate in substantial agreement with QCWA Constitution and By-Laws. Through the active help of chapters, the QCWA Memorial Scholarship Fund is growing rapidly and with Chapter to inform and challenge members, we see greater participation in QCWA activities around the world. Chapters have been assigned Chapter numbers issued on the basis of the date of their charter. At present 174 such Charters have been issued, granted and approved by the Board. The following is a list of Chapters chartered through the years. Most are still active. In recent years several chapters that were inactive have been re-activated - in some cases the original chapter names have been changed.

QCWA DIRECTORY OF MEMBERS
Publication Constraints

This QCWA Membership Directory is the 17th such volume printed. Directories were published in the years 1949, 1950, 1952, 1953, 1962, 1964, 1966, 1968, 1970, 1972, 1974, 1976, 1979, 1982, 1985, 1987. This 1990 volume is by far the largest ever published to the present time.

Wherever possible titles and professional designations have been omitted. All processing was done on QCWA owned equipment, IBM compatible computers and laser printers. Software was Dbase III+ and Aldus Pagemaker. Sorting of data was by call zone, suffix and prefix of calls. Each call zone was treated as a separate entity and all were then combined in a final volume. In recent years it has become difficult to identify amateurs by their call signs. There have been and continue to be so very many changes. For this reason we have continued the practice of listing all members having U. S. Zipcode addresses in the section devoted in most part to Domestic members. and having mailing addresses with U. S. listings irrespective of their calls. Likewise, members having U. S. calls, but having addresses without U. S. Zipcode may be found in the listing for the Country in which they have specified residence and for which QCWA has been provided a mailing address. All members who were in good standing as of December 31, 1989 were included in the listings. To accommodate those who may have paid dues delayed in the mail, the database was held open until January 23, 1990. Address changes were included in the data as received until March 15, 1990.

The following is a listing of totals of members in each of the call-zones and our International members:

U. S. Zone 1	649	U. S. Zone 6	1186
U. S. Zone 2	1092	U. S. Zone 7	1012
U. S. Zone 3	729	U. S. Zone 8	1064
U. S. Zone 4	1483	U. S. Zone 9	629
U. S. Zone 5	1265	U. S. Zone 0	873

International 543

The listings in the Directory were prepared with three lines of data. The upper line lists the Members call identification, the members name, his QCWA Membership number and the year in which he obtained his first amateur license. The second line provides the street address and the third line the City, State, Zip information.

International member listings are by Country names, listed alphabetically, i.e., Australia, Austria, etc. Countries are listed even though only one member may reside therein.

CREDITS

With this issue of the QCWA Membership Directory we have reinstated the policy of publishing a listing of all known QCWA members who have been reported as Silent Key Members. This listing is of particular importance since it identifies those who are honored by the QCWA Memorial Scholarship Program. With the numerous call changes that have occurred among QCWA members in recent years we have been forced to establish a policy for listing the calls of our Silent Key Members. In general we have attempted to list the call assigned to them at the time of their termination as a QCWA Member, even though they may have been well known with an earlier call. Bringing our listing of Silent Key Members to its present state is directly the result of work done by several volunteers. Those who have been major contributors in this effort are: Mr. Ralph Cabanillas, W6IL, Mr. John Harvey Chase, W4TG, Mr. Robert B. Wright, W4OZF and John Miller, W0IKT. Our thanks go to them for the many hours they have given to this work.

Copies of the latest version of the QCWA Constitution and By-Laws have been prepared through the courtesy of QCWA Secretary, John Swafford, W4HU

All work of bringing the QCWA database up to date and as accurate as possible was done by the Headquarters Staff. Ruth Chance, K5YL, Nadine Wells, W5ZUT and Ted, W5EJ. Membership records were checked. Special computer programming matters were recommended by T. E. Heithecker, ex WN5UVZ. Dallas Chapter No. 41 members, W5CJZ, W5III, W5IS and N5NT assisted in proof-reading copy. Assistance with special problems was received from Jim Walsh, W7LVN. Printing was done by Shepard Printing, Dallas, Texas. Cover design by W5EJ. We apologize for errors or omissions remaining. Support of the Officers and Board members of QCWA is gratefully acknowledged.
